

LORETTA FORD CENTENNIAL SCHOLARSHIP

AANP | American Association of
NURSE PRACTITIONERS®

Program Description

- Available to AANP members who are currently registered nurses (RNs) enrolled in an accredited Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) program.
- Applicants must be licensed as an RN, have at least two years of paid work experience as an RN, have completed at least one semester of their current DNP program and be scheduled to graduate with their DNP in fall 2021 or later.
- Five awardees will receive $10,000 each in scholarship funding.
- Applications are due by February 5, 2021, at 6 p.m. ET (5 p.m. CT).

Eligibility Requirements

- Must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident.
- Must not be a member of the AANP Board of Directors (BOD) or a relative of a current AANP BOD member.
- Must not be an AANP State Representative.
- Must not be an AANP staff member or a relative of an AANP staff member.
- Be an RN, in good standing with your state Board of Nursing, with an active or unencumbered license.
- Have at least two years' experience working in a paid RN position.
- Have at least one semester of your current DNP program completed.
- Have at least one semester of your current program remaining to be completed after spring 2021, with a planned graduation date in fall 2021 or later.
- Successfully complete your program by earning a DNP.

Supporting Documents

- Copy of Your DNP Program of Study.
- Copy of Your Most Recent Official, Certified Transcript.
- Three Current, Professional References on Letterhead.
- Current CV or Résumé.

Eligible Disciplines

- Applicants must be enrolled in an accredited DNP program.
- RNs currently enrolled in programs with an administrative focus – or programs to prepare other advance practice registered nurses (APRNs) – will not be eligible.

Applicants must have already earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree before applying. RNs who have only an Associate Degree in Nursing will not be eligible.

Apply at ford-scholarship.aanp.org.

Do you have a question?
Contact AANP at lorettafordscholarship@aanp.org.