Welcome!

June 20, 2019

Inductees, Fellows, Family, Friends, and Colleagues,

On behalf of the Fellow's Executive Committee, it is my honor to welcome you to the 2019 Fellows Induction Ceremony. The Induction Ceremony is a very special event in which we recognize and welcome those Nurse Practitioners who have demonstrated their expertise in two of the following areas: clinical practice, research, education, and health policy.

Becoming a Fellow reflects a significant personal accomplishment as well as individual contributions to our profession and the nation's health. The Fellow's designation also comes with a commitment to support the mission, values, and goals of AANP as well as to advance the role of the nurse practitioner through leadership and participation in Fellow's initiatives.

Tonight, we also recognize an outstanding individual who has supported and contributed to the role of the NP. Our 2019 Honorary Fellow is Dr. Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, PhD, MBA, RN, FAAN, FNAP. Dr. Fitzpatrick has had an enduring impact on the NP role through education, leadership, support, and mentorship of NPs in the DNP role. Many of our Fellows have personally been mentored by her.

The 2019 Loretta Ford Award is posthumously awarded to Dr. Mona Counts, PhD, CRNP, FAANP, FNAP, FAAN. Dr. Counts was the second NP in the nation and had a significant, career long impact on the advancement of the NP role. She established one of the first independent NP practices (in rural Appalachia) and provided care to area residents throughout most of her career. As an innovator, Mona developed a telehealth practice caring for patients in rural Pennsylvania, providing care to this vulnerable population until her passing. Dr. Counts was active in state and national politics, influencing advanced practice legislation, and was an educator and Eberly Professor of Nursing at Penn State University. She mentored and precepted countless NPs during her career, which spanned over 50 years. She is honored and remembered for her unique and prominent place in the history of the advanced practice nurse.

We'd like to thank the many volunteers and staff members from FAANP and AANP that helped organize and produce this wonderful event. Without their time and dedication, the ceremony and reception would not be possible.

Please join me in congratulating and welcoming our new 2019 Fellows!

Sincerely,

Janet DuBois, DNP, FNP, PMHNP, FAANP, FNAP

History of FAANP

The Fellows of the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners (FAANP) program was established by the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) in 2000 to recognize nurse practitioner (NP) leaders who have made outstanding contributions to health care through NP clinical practice, research, education or policy, and to provide a forum to extend and enhance such efforts. In 2013, FAANP became the Fellows of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners with the merger of two national NP organizations.

From Think Tanks to the Mentorship Program, FAANP is dedicated to advancing the NP profession and enhance the AANP mission. FAANP members are visionaries impacting national and global health through priority initiatives, such as the creation and development of leadership and mentorship programs to foster the advancement of nurse practitioners and nurse practitioner students. All active members maintain membership in both AANP and FAANP. The FAANP leadership reports to the AANP Board of Directors.

2019 Chair Award

Diane Padden, PhD, CRNP, FAANP

Dr. Diane Padden joined the American Association of Nurse Practitioners (AANP) in 2013 and serves as the vice president of professional practice and partnerships. In this role, she is responsible for planning, developing, and implementing activities and programs related to professional practice. Dr. Padden represents AANP and participates in a wide variety of multi-stakeholder meetings related to nurse practitioner practice which may include clinical practice guidelines, practice models, patient outcomes, quality measures, and reimbursement. She also develops, establishes, and maintains partnerships with other organizations and agencies relevant to practice initiatives that support delivery of high quality of care by nurse practitioners and disseminating this essential information to AANP members.

With over 20 years of direct patient care experience as a practicing family nurse practitioner, Dr. Padden has both public and private practice settings expertise with a focus on health promotion and disease prevention. She is keenly aware of the individual responsibility of clinicians to provide quality care in the currently rapid changing and complex health system. Additionally, Dr. Padden has expertise in military culture and their beneficiaries' unique challenges related to frequent separations and social isolation. She has conducted several research studies and published in the areas of stress, coping, and health promotion behaviors among spouses of military service members.

Prior to coming to AANP, Dr. Padden was an associate professor in the Daniel K. Inouye Graduate School of Nursing at the Uniformed Services University in Bethesda, Maryland. While there, she taught in the masters and doctoral programs and held several leadership positions, including Family Nurse Practitioner program director and chair of the Department of Health, Injury and Disease Prevention. With over 14 years of experience in education and curriculum design, Dr. Padden has expertise in the essentials of nurse practitioner education and was a site evaluator for the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) conducting accreditation visits at schools of nursing seeking accreditation.

Dr. Padden received her Master of Nursing Degree from Emory University and her doctoral degree in nursing from The Catholic University of America. She was inducted as a fellow in the American Association of Nurse Practitioners in 2010. She has received several awards including, outstanding faculty, outstanding research abstract for AANP, and the Janet Rexrode Southby Prize in Nursing Research.

2019 Loretta C. Ford Award

Mona Marie Counts, PhD, CRNP, FNAP, FAAN, FAANP

The 2019 recipient of the Loretta C. Ford Award for Advancement of the Nurse Practitioner Role in Health Care is Dr. Mona Marie Counts. The Loretta C. Ford Award is presented annually to an NP who demonstrates participation in health care policy development at an international, national or local level; sustained and specific contribution to clarification of the role and scope of practice of NPs; and/or creative and effective action to turn a challenge to the NP role into an effective opportunity to advance practice and improve patient outcomes.

Known as one of the founding mothers of the NP movement, Dr. Counts is nationally recognized for her impact on health policy and legislation, most notably her efforts in regards to NP's as primary care providers and healthcare access and practice in rural areas. She served on various White House Panels and key national task forces for healthcare reform. She lobbied for NP full practice authority at both the state and national level. As Chair at the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services, Dr. Counts paved the way for independent NP practice by insisting on provider neutral language for improved reimbursement to NPs.

Dr. Counts developed one of the nation's first independent NP run family practice clinics, which provided healthcare to underserved rural areas in the Appalachians. Through her clinic, thousands of low-income individuals residing in medically underserved areas were able to receive high quality healthcare. Dr. Counts' rural primary care clinic continues to serve as a model for NP practice.

As one of this nation's first NPs and a strong supporter of women's education and advancement, Dr. Mona Counts was instrumental in the development of NP curricula across the country. Since 1970, when she started the Nurse Intensivist Program (later known as the NP Program) at Emory University, she proceeded to help develop NP programs at various other universities, including Baylor and Penn State.

Dr. Counts further influenced and increased the visibility of the NP role as a former President of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners (AANP), Charter member and Chair of the Fellows of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners (FAANP) and officer of the AANP Certification Board.

2019 Honorary Fellow

Joyce J. Fitzpatrick, PhD, MBA, RN, FAAN, FNAP, FAANP(H)

The 2019 FAANP Honorary Fellow is Dr. Joyce J. Fitzpatrick. The Honorary Fellow is a non-nurse practitioner who has demonstrated outstanding leadership in at least one of the following areas of importance to nurse practitioners: Practice, Education, Policy and Research.

Dr. Fitzpatrick is Elizabeth Brooks Ford Professor of Nursing at the Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing (FPBSON) of Case Western Reserve University (CWRU) in Cleveland, Ohio. She served as Dean of FPBSON from 1982 to 1997. In 2018, Dr. Fitzpatrick was named as Inaugural Director of the Marian K. Shaughnessy Nursing Leadership Academy at FPBSON. In this new role, she serves as Project Director of the recently funded study “Full Practice Authority for Advanced Practice Nurses: A Partnership between the Schools of Nursing, Law, Management and Medicine, Case Western Reserve University”. The study is anticipated to add significantly to existing evidence supporting full practice authority for NPs.

Dr. Joyce Fitzpatrick has provided sustained meritorious service in Education with her conceptualization and introduction of the clinical doctorate (ND) in the 1980s, which was the foundation for today’s DNP. For more than 70 NPs, many of whom are Fellows, she has served as Chair or Committee Member of APRN students’ Master’s and/or Doctoral studies at CWRU. Additionally, as Professor in Nursing Leadership she has instructed hundreds of other NPs with advanced coursework essential to complete the required curriculum.

Dr. Fitzpatrick has received multiple honorary doctorates, numerous honors, and awards. With more than 300 publications, she has received the American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Award 20 times. In 2014, she received the STTI Research Hall of Fame Award, and in 2016, she was named a Living Legend by AAN. In 2018, she received the prestigious ANA Jessie M. Scott award. In 2017, Dr. Fitzpatrick received the Nightingale Initiative for Global Health: Excellence Award for Teaching and Mentoring Nursing’s Future Leaders, and has been selected to receive the 2019 Florence Nightingale International Foundation International Council of Nurses Award.

2019 FAANP Program Board of Directors Message

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF AANP SENDS

Congratulations to all 2019 Fellow Inductees on your accomplishment.

You are joining an elite group of nurse practitioner leaders.

We look forward to your participation in the AANP Fellows Program.

Our sincere appreciation to the FAANP Leadership for your continuing dedication to AANP and the Fellows Program.

Joyce Knestrick, President and the AANP Board of Directors
